

Dairying is most important of Heber area agricultural industries, accounting for 45 per cent of farm income

Agriculture and Livestock

In Wasatch County a total of 26,546 acres are devoted to crop land, of which 19,340 are harvested as such. The average size farm under cultivation is 80 acres. There are 340 individuals in the county who derive the majority of their livelihood from farming activity.

Main agricultural crops include alfalfa hay, meadow hay, and corn. Most of these crops are

